

Developing Future Leaders

Target Training Associates will develop individuals within your business into inspired, motivated leaders and managers.

Our ILM Accredited Foundation Management Development Programme (FMDP) is a modular programme aimed at developing individuals into inspirational and motivated leaders and managers.

It has a key spine in the form of Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) assessment which will improve awareness and communication. Followed by a series of modular workshops designed to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of team leaders, first line managers and middle management.

At Target Training, we are passionate about improving staff efficiency and effectiveness for individuals and organisations. The immediate impact of our training improves confidence, motivation and performance.
